CYPRESS PERFORMING ARTS ASSOCIATION

CYPRESS STRING QUARTET/String Quartets of Elena Ruehr-How She Danced:

Open your ears in this direction if you want to be on the cutting edge of contemporary classical. With a specially commissioned work for the quartet and two other works that follow back 20 years into Ruehr's canon, this is elegant, top shelf listening and playing. Without a false note in the collection, anyone saying that classical music isn't an organic body is way off the mark. You can really see classical fans stuck in traffic being glad to have this in the car with them. Well done.
